Dear Friends in Christ,

Hosanna is thriving. What a joy it is to say that. Each week we are welcoming new worshippers. Small group ministry is booming. Hosanna is adding small groups in all of our purpose areas. Youth Night 2.0 was kicked off with great success and an outdoor worship with nearly 200 in attendance. Our new service has created space for new worshippers to become regular worshippers in all of our services. Our ministry groups are proclaiming God's love as they pack containers for overseas mission, mow lawns, and make quilts and care bags for our community. Friends, Hosanna is thriving.

Our Mission statement clearly states that, we the congregation of Hosanna Lutheran will proclaim the love of God to all people, so that they may know Jesus Christ, grow in faith, and follow Christ.

With this as our mission, God has been leading me to the following vision:

Hosanna is transforming our community and our world by proclaiming a unique, inclusive, and serving Gospel as understood by our reformation theologians. I envision that within the next ten to twelve years, Hosanna has a regular worshipping attendance of 800-1000 souls. We are worshipping in this building with significant changes or in another building altogether, but as is, this facility will not hold us.

As we proclaim this welcoming Gospel to all people, we grow in outreach ministries. We see an influx of service MINISTRY and support groups. Our three or four energetic WORSHIP services each week move with a new vibrancy, thanks to a team of AV techs and musicians who are not only leading the services but are also creating new music and media. We will also be engaging the community with a robust online ministry presence.

We EVANGELIZE, particularly to those who feel left out of the congregations they have worshipped with in the past. Our understanding of the Gospel is such that we have moved beyond shame and guilt to instead live as a community in hope and grace. We are welcoming to all.

Our Preschool children and youth night students have an indoor area in which to play, an indoor area which also is able to house all of our regular attenders in robust, joy-filled fellowship events. We FELLOWSHIP with one another and all worshippers are able to come together to be part of the one body of Christ. Our big church feels small.

DISCIPLESHIP ministries lead friends and families to greater love of Christ. Youth ministries grow to the point where we need additional staff to organizing the weekly small groups and summer mission trips. Our Small Group ministry have grown to the point of needing a full-time ordained pastor of small group ministries. Several hundred Hosanna small groups across all of the purpose areas work together in an integrative fashion to bring God's preferred future into being.

To achieve this long-range vision, we need a short-term one.

I see that in the next 16 months, by the beginning of year 2020, Hosanna will increase its regular worship attendance to 450 per weekend. To do this, we will need to invest time, energy and resources across all of our purpose areas in an integrative manner starting today! We will need several well executed evangelism events that target non-Hosanna folks, staffed by our own members, need to funnel into well organized and advertised small groups that are relevant to the newcomers. These small groups move first time members and guests efficiently into our congregation. Greater utilization of online tools will increase our reoccurring financial giving.

Fellowship events, at least four a year need to focus on the interaction between the worshippers of various services in a way that makes our growing church seem smaller. Decisions are made with incorporating the newcomer in mind.

A culture of evangelism is grown, particularly in the youth ministry, and new staff are integral in this new vision. This cultural shift will include training within our congregation on friendship evangelism and welcome. We are a growing congregation sharing gospel message of a loving God, and unfortunately, in our society message is becoming rare.

I envision that by 2020 we will have more than 50 small groups across all 5 purpose areas and we will continue to transform lives through our service ministries. Small groups are the key to a healthy growing church.

This vision will take lots of prayer. This vision will take time, talent and financial resources, but this is the vision I have been seeing here for quite a while. The decisions we as a council have made in the last year have brought us to this place.

This vision takes your energy, your time and your talents, and of course your resources. In October, Hosanna will participate in a stewardship campaign. Over the course of four weeks Pastor Jay, council members, congregational forums, small groups, and large congregational events will provide opportunities for you to increase in stewardship.

I ask you to start praying about this mission and your own financial giving. Ask God to show you your blessings and your response. Ask God to increase your generosity and evangelism. What are the needs your neighbor has which can be relieved by our congregation. I ask you to consider how the ministries at Hosanna have added value to your life and how our ministry is changing the culture of our community.

This vision of God's mission, alive at Hosanna is a thriving one.

God Bless,
Pastor Jay

Tell Me About It

I just ate the best Tiki Masala I have ever eaten. No, seriously. I love Indian food. When we lived in Missouri, Jay and I would drive over an hour to get to our favorite Indian restaurant, The Taj Mahal, just so I could enjoy the best Matar Paneer I had ever eaten. But today, today The Taj Mahal may have been surpassed. And what was the first thing I did when I got home? I uploaded a photo of my Tiki Masala and I blasted that place on Social Media. Why? Because if I love it, wouldn't I want EVERYONE to love it too? The same works for Hosanna's small groups program. Has your intimate discipleship small group changed your heart and soul? Has your small group taught you more about Jesus than you ever thought imaginable? Perhaps your small group has reached your intellectual mind in new ways. Wouldn't you want everyone to experience such joy, intimacy, and challenge? I would! I know that telling people about Hosanna Small Groups is the perfect way to bring new people into the Church. But it is hard sometimes, isn't it? You don't always want to share those things that mean so much to you, because maybe if I tell too many people about the new Tiki Masala, it will be too busy and the next time I go, they might run out. Or possibly, you just want to have something just to yourself. That's okay! Nobody is telling you that when you tell someone of the great things that your small group has done for you, that you have to include them in THAT specific small group. Get them involved in any small group. Let them know they are welcome. All of them. The whole world.

So...there has been a lot on my mind recently. Do you ever feel like the craziness of the worldly life just takes over? All the responsibilities surrounding the family, the homestead...the church. Is there enough money? Is there enough time? Plus you get everybody else's opinion about what you should be or should not be doing. Mix it together with a few things gone wrong and life at times just becomes a struggle void of joy and full of anxiety. It literally happens to all of us....at some point. It happened to me just recently. I am no different. And my first instinct is to address my issues with solutions borrowed from this world...well let's buy something...or let's go out for dinner...let's take a nap...maybe whatever is bothering me will just go away. But it never does. For some reason, worldly solution always withers and solves little if anything ever. So what then? The Bible tells us to rely on the Lord. First and foremost, always be grateful..."for the Lord is my shepherd...I shall not want" [Psalm 23]. This confirms our reliance on HIM...focuses our lives on HIM...counters worldly desires...pours water on the fires of jealousy and related anger. Ditch the anxiety with this: "So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God" [Isaiah 41:10]. This counters heavy fear and anxiety about the present and the future...it burns out the worries...things will still happen but the Almighty God is with you. When overwhelmed, turn to Chronicles 20:17: "You will not have to fight this battle. Take up your positions; stand firm and see the deliverance the Lord will give you." When I read this passage I envision this fiery tornado with overwhelming flames...and me or you or both of us right in the center...protected by the Hand of God. In situations bad enough, do not be afraid to cry out to the Lord and ask for deliverance. I guarantee you in the darkest of times there is a Seraphim Angel watching over you. Now...the last and important: Galatians 6:9 "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up"...when the winds of the world try to sway us, stand firm in your affection to the greatest commandment...Love your God and love your neighbor. Your harvest depends on it.

So...I encourage you to be always grateful...to fully rely on the Lord...let Him help you ditch your anxiety and fear the world continuously throws at you...to turn from dismay and anguish...to stand firm in your beliefs and to find yourself relentlessly in pursuit of God's closeness....and to be your brother's keeper always and everywhere.

God Bless,

Alex

Oh how exciting my first month at Hosanna has been! August was filled with “firsts”, not only for me, but for all our Jr. and Sr. High as well. We switched from the lake to the beach for our end of summer, Sr. High Retreat. We kicked off our new Confirmation program with an overnighter. We had an amazing Rally Day. We also kicked off Youth Night 2.0 with Jr. and Sr. High together in the Barn!

Moving to September, the “firsts” are here to stay, especially with Youth Night! My hope is that as we settle into our Sunday, Youth Night routine, our Jr. and Sr. Highers walk away each time learning and experiencing something they haven’t before. Whether it’s playing a new game where we all throw a dead fish in the air (yep, that happened), answering icebreaker questions and learning something new about someone else, or hearing about who Jesus is in a different way than before. Each week is filled with opportunity for more “firsts”.

Although September is a month of transition from summer to fall, we’ll already be planning next summer’s Lutherhill Trip and Senior High Mission Trip. Next month, we will have our first parent meetings for each trip, and I am excited to see how we can continue this theme of “firsts” all the way into next summer.

I can’t say thank you enough for the overwhelmingly warm welcome I’ve received from the entire congregation. I truly believe God has something special in store for our Youth Program, and I am so humbled to be a part of it. Here’s to another great month!

Much Love,
Katie

The old adage that time flies is true. I am proud to say that as of today, we have hosted two Youth Nights for the new school year. Last weekend's Youth Night was remarkable. Most of the "kinks" had been corrected, and there was a "full house" during the early dining time in Fellowship Hall to the point that I had to personally sit in the reception area! I did not mind of course. Also, I have been busy with cleaning and organizing the closets in the different classrooms so it will be much easier for our teachers to find any items they may need while teaching each Sunday. There is still so much more to get rid of and organize, but I feel I am making great progress. In addition, I am thinking of ways to spruce up our classrooms by adding decorations and allowing the teachers to feel free to embellish the rooms to their specific taste.

With regards to Hosanna's Preschool, I am looking forward to attending the "Meet and Greet" event that is scheduled for September 14th. I believe it will provide me with a great opportunity to get to know our preschoolers and their parents, as well as, enlighten me with ideas on how to incorporate the preschool into future church events.

Sincerely,
Erin Fogarty

July 16th, 2018 Hosanna Lutheran Church Council Meeting

Attendance: Alex, Brad, Carlos, Ron, Ryan, Ginny, Jay, Tara, Stephen, Julie

Julie called meeting to order at 7:04pm and announced a quorum is established

Approval of Previous Meetings Minutes

Carlos motioned to approve June's meeting minutes and Purpose Area, Treasurer's, Small Group Coordinator, and Pastor's reports; Julie Seconded, no discussion, unanimous consent

New Business

Ron motioned to switch Alex and Ginny respective positions on council as purpose area representative. Alex would now be the Discipleship rep; and Ginny would be the Evangelism rep; Tara seconded; no discussion, unanimous consent

Old Business

Continued discussion on 2020 vision and Stewardship Campaign; Tabled to special meetings in July

Focus Area Discussion: Worship

Council held a brainstorming session on Worship purpose area. A review of the Council handbook highlighted a checklist for worship service, which some contended was a list of adiaphora. While important for the worship team, assistants, and potentially staff; the checklist did not feel essential to this Council. Rather, Council and the worship purpose-area representative might serve better to focus on the experience of worship, and steer policies to instill the Sacraments, inspire, uplift, and spread the Good News to the congregation. Worship Teams can then procure a methodology (or checklist) to achieve the vision.

Julie motioned to adjourn; Carlos Seconded; Jay led the Council in Closing Prayer at 9:09pm.
