rev.jgrave@hosannalutheran.com

Grace to you and Peace,

Late in January, I was able to spend three days on Galveston Island at the Tri-Synodical Theological conference. This event happens every couple of years and is a gathering of all the ELCA Pastors and leaders in the three geographical synods that cover all of Texas and Louisiana and a bit of Oklahoma.

For three days, more than 200 pastors gathered in the sanctuary of the oldest Lutheran congregation in Texas. We worshipped together, we caught-up with old friends and met new ones, we drank too much coffee, but mostly we discussed how churches, families, and communities are changing. Our keynote speakers recently published a book called Soul Force, which discusses seven pivots we make as we reach out in mission in a changing context.

During the lecture on the second day, one of the authors, Shawn Casselberry was discussing a mission trip he took as a high school student, much like the trip to Chicago our Hosanna Youth will be making this summer. As he was encouraging us, he admitted that too often this mission work fails, but when it is successful it is so good. The difference, he claims, is that the successful ministries are, "In Love with the people with whom they minister." The love for the other, the love for the stranger, the love we have for Jesus shared person-toperson. This love is the fuel to our mission. As we proclaim the love of God to all people so that they will know grow and follow Jesus, we desire for the life of the other to be as good as ours, as blessed as ours. It is in the love, that we know Jesus has loved us in the midst of failing and trials and struggles. It is in love that we proclaim love.

This month I will be spending four weeks preaching on love. In the Greek New Testament, there are four separate words that are translated as the English word, Love; and that word Love is used 310 times in scripture. These four aspects of love. There is love like companionship, there is love we know through service, of course there is sexual love, and then lastly, we know the unconditional love we receive from God in spite of who we are. These sermons, I hope, reflect our lives or living love.

In this newsletter, you will see opportunities to live our lives of love. Prayer and Service groups, fellowship opportunities, a fund-raising Gala's and knitting groups, new worship times and expanded study times. These events are just a few of the ways we live out God's love, proclaiming love to all.

God Bless,

Pastor Jay

Sharing Your Experience

I am excited to see where 2019 continues to lead us. Koinonia Round 2 is off to a great start with new members and groups! It is fun to have people tell me about what they do with their groups. I would love it if you could take a photo or two of your group and send it to me or post it online and tag Hosanna Lutheran and use the Hashtag #Koinonia. This is a great way to show everyone else what a great time we have together as a community. The same is true for your small groups. If you are having a great discipleship conversation within your small group, share that with those around you! INVITE new people to join you. Sometimes small groups can be very intimate and it is hard to invite new people in. That's ok! Set aside a time for your small group to meet socially and invite others to that event. It is a great way to introduce new people to the people you have grown to love and care for at Hosanna! If you take photos during your small group, share them online and tag Hosanna and use the Hashtag #HosannaSmallGroups. I'd love to see our small group program continue to grow in spirituality and numbers over the next few months!

Stephen Ministry is CONFIDENTIAL Contact: Lois or Blair Sundquist (985) 327-7047.

Congregational Care Team

The Congregational Care Team of Hosanna Lutheran Church spends time praying and caring for individuals and families who are going through illness, are home-bound or facing any personal struggles. The group keeps in contact with them by sending cards, making phone calls and visits. They also find out if they need help or anything else during their time of struggle. If you need help or know of anyone please contact Lois Sundquist (985-327-7047), Julie Dauzat (985-264-5951) or the church office (985-727-9200).

Hosanna Gala 2019

Every year, our Senior and Junior High youth go on various outings and planned activities. Our Youth Gala fundraiser is a huge part of making this possible by helping defray the costs of these events. This years Gala fundraising proceeds will help with Summer trip transportation, the Senior Youth Chicago missions trip, (see below for more details), and the Junior High summer camp held at Luther Hill in LaGrange Texas this year. These outings are so important for our youth group's development. Luther Hill provides a chance for our students to grow together spiritually and come back bonded as a group. While the Senior High mission trip provides bonding, it also provides real world experiences and connections. Our students get a chance to see what the world is like outside our community. They get a chance to help spread God's love to all through service, discipleship, and fellowship. With your attendance, donations and support of this years Gala, you can help impact the lives of our great youth by making a way for them to attend these fantastic summer opportunities. Thank you church family for your continued love and support for our youth!

CHICAGO YOUTH MISSION TRIP

In the Windy City of Chicago, the youth mission trip team will find a variety of opportunities to serve people of all walks of life. The many faces they will encounter need to see and feel the love of Jesus in a real way. Whether it is helping to encourage a local nonprofit organization or assist a local pastor, their Chicago mission trip will bring a breath of fresh air to people who pour themselves into their ministries daily. Prayer ministry in the city will also be a focus for our youth. As we are led to pray with intentionality, we expect our eyes will be opened to how God sees these specific needs and answers the prayers of His people.

Chicago is a city that has so many people who are in need of Jesus, and our youth will have the opportunity to share God's love with various groups throughout city.

Getting to Know You

Each month we will have a page to get to know each other better! We will feature families and/or individuals each month. Make a point to find them in church, and introduce yourself, and look out, it will be your turn soon!

Meet the Browns! Dave and Julie Brown have been married 36 years. Julie serves on the Council at Hosanna Lutheran Church, and has attended church here since 2001. Dave and Julie have two grown sons, Derek and Kyle, and a beautiful daughter in law, Brandy! No grandchildren as of yet, only 3 grand dogs....that Julie is highly allergic to! The Browns originally met at Central Michigan University. They lived next door to each other in a co ed dorm, and over time became best friends. David and Julie are transplants, orig inally from Illinois and Michigan. They were brought here by a job opportunity....and the need to get out of the cold! With the absence of family in the area, they have raised their chil dren together with their Hosanna 'family', which have turned into many great friendships.

Julie tells us:

My husband and I are retired and loving every minute. Exercising is important to me so I either work out at Francos doing a combat class and/or walk the Lakefront or neighborhood. We enjoy traveling/cruising and do it frequently. We also visit our kids and family in Metairie, Houston, Michigan, Alabama, Florida, and South Carolina. We plan on staying in Mandeville for a long time since we love our church family and friends. Having Christ in our life is the most important priority for us, and having friends that share that same belief is truly a blessing.

Meet the Weber's! Ryan, Lacie and Ann Weber are from all over the states! Ryan is from Iowa, Lacie is from Nebraska, and their daughter, 8 yr. old Ann, was born in Texas! Work brought them to the Gulf Coast. Ryan and Lacie have been married 11yrs, and have been in the area since 2014.

The family has many hobbies and talents. Ryan enjoys beer brewing, and PC Gaming, while Lacie likes to crochet. Ann's hobbies include swimming, crafts, and Minecraft. There favorite thing about Lousisana? Seafood, St. Tammany Schools, Cultural diversity, and the lack of SNOW!

Both, Ryan and Ann enjoy playing the violin. They have been members of our Hosanna Lutheran Church Family since 2015, and love the acceptance and willingness to involve everyone at HLC. Ryan serves on Hosanna Lutheran's Church Council.

Control or Faith? By Ryan Weber

My loving wife folds laundry in the living room. It drove me crazy! I used to think laundry should be folded in the laundry room! We are lucky to have a room entirely devoted to laundry, so why don't we use that room for its designed purpose? After several "discussions" I started reflecting on why does this drive me crazy? I don't particularly enjoy folding laundry. My wife seemingly agrees to fold the laundry without protest. Our clothes aren't wrinkled, and are presentable. I should be happy and at-peace that I don't have to do a chore I don't particularly enjoy. I'm happy that the laundry is folded and put away. Why do I try to control how the chore is performed?

Then, almost by design, I read a Tweet from Craig Groeschel: "A boss controls; A leader empowers. You can have control or you can have growth, but you can't have both. You have recruited great people, trust and empower them." Suddenly, I now understood that by trying to control the chore my wife graciously volunteers to perform; I'm just undermining, depowering, and demotivating her from a task that needed to be done anyway. I needed to have faith and trust instead of control.

For the doers, the organizers, and the planners; Faith can be really hard. Faith requires living with uncertain outcomes. Faith requires trust. Trust requires practice, patience, and perseverance. None of which are a lot of fun. However, we practice faith and trust all the time. We have faith that our electricity will work, or our employer will pay us, or our pet will be at the door to greet us, or the money will be there when we withdraw it from the bank. Sometimes, the thing or person we place faith in lets us down, and learning to trust again takes practice, patience, and perseverance. Growth and peace will come if we remember to employ faith as we wait for solutions.

At Hosanna, I find peace in the faith we place on each other. Sure, it is hard, as patience denies us the desire to have answers right now, practice is enduring, and perseverance is boring; but that's how we grow. I'm finding it to be a very exciting time at Hosanna. We continue to grow and face new opportunities to share the love of Christ and help each other grow. I just have to remember that it's ok to fold the clothes in an undesignated area.

February is an exciting month because we begin our new Youth Night Schedule! While the Jr. and Sr. High will continue with their own curriculum that expands off of Pastor Jay's sermon each week, our biggest change will be joining the younger kids in playing games at the start of Youth Night. Erin and I have been working hard in planning each Sunday with intention and purpose.

Recently, I have been reminded of how wild God is. He is a God who walks on water, who tears down Temples, and who feeds thousands. That is wild, and the change in the Youth Night Schedule reminds me of that wildness. Making a big change in the middle of the school year – that's wild. All the kids out in the front of the church playing at the same time– that's wild! I am thankful that we get to have such a sweet and obvious example about a characteristic of God, and as we continue to move into the new schedule, I am excited to see what else He reveals about Himself.

Much Love, Katie

we need

We will be making Mardi Gras floats out of shoe boxes for a class art project and are in need of shoe boxes, and items to decorate the boxes i.e. beads, doubloons, etc. If you have any of these items to donate, please bring them to church and drop them off at the information desk.

Upcoming Youth Events!

We received the following 'Thank you' letter from the Seamen's Church, in response to packages that our youth filled with scarves and other winter items for Christmas:

Dear Jay and Hosanna,

Your involvement with The Seamen's Church Institute's Christmas on the River 2018 is deeply appreciated. With your help, we served over 60 maritime companies and reached over 13,000 mariners.

Over 300 volunteers from churches, Sea Scouts and the San Jacinto Maritime Academy packaged COR boxes. Along with our River Chaplain Associates, we drove over 5,000 miles and delivered 1,900 packages to boats and their crews. These numbers represent almost 1/3 of our 5,500 vessel Merchant Marine fleet. Our new Christmas on the Sea Director, Joanne Bartoski, and her volunteers did an outstanding job receiving, recording, and then redistributing over 5,000 hand-made knitted items to our COR packing stations. Suggestions of new companies or improvements for next year are greatly appreciated.

Thank you again and blessings for 2019, Tom

Stewardship Corner

February 2019

The season of Epiphany focuses on how God was made manifest in the flesh of Jesus. The church spends time hearing of the miracles, the signs and wonders, of Jesus in the world.

And this made plain to all that Jesus was who He said He was: He was the Second Person of the Holy Trinity, the only-begotten Son of the Father, in the flesh. For "the Word became flesh and dwelt among us" (John 1:14).

It is revealed for all the world to see that Jesus is God in the flesh. It is made manifest by His words and His work, by what He said and by what He did. And these belong together, for "the Word became flesh and dwelt among us."

Jesus is the Word and will of God in the flesh, that is, He is the walking, talking, enactment of God's Word.

It is no different for us. We are called not just to believe in God in hearts, but also to trust in God in word and deed.

As James wrote: "But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves" (James 1:22), and again, "What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? ... So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. ... Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. ... For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also faith apart from works is dead" (James 2:14, 17–18, 26).

Our faith is lived out in works for our neighbor. Our trust in the Word and will of God is lived out not in word only, but also in deed and in truth.

In other words, the Epiphany of the Lord creates in us an epiphany of our faith in our works of obedience to God who commanded them. By this, our faith is made manifest to the world. It is, as Luther wrote of faith:

"Faith is a divine work in us. It changes us and makes us to be born anew of God (John 1). It kills the old Adam and makes altogether different people, in heart and spirit and mind and powers, and it brings with it the Holy Spirit.

"Oh, it is a living, busy, active, mighty thing, this faith. And so it is impossible for it not to do good works incessantly. It does not ask whether there are good works to do, but before the question rises, it has already done them, and is always at the doing of them.

"He who does not these works is a faithless man. He gropes and looks about after faith and good works and knows neither what faith is nor what good works are, though he talks and talks, with many words about faith and good works.

"Faith is a living, daring confidence in God's grace, so sure and certain that a man would stake his life on it a thousand times. This confidence in God's grace and knowledge of it makes men glad and bold and happy in dealing with God and all His creatures.

"And this is the work of the Holy Spirit in faith. Hence a man is ready and glad, without compulsion, to do good to everyone, to serve everyone, to suffer everything, in love and praise to God, who has shown him this grace.

"And thus it is impossible to separate works from faith, quite as impossible as to separate burning and shining from fire. Beware, therefore, of your own false notions and of the idle talkers, who would be wise enough to make decisions about faith and good works, and yet are the greatest fools." (Preface to the Book of Romans)

So, then, let our faith be active by God's power in the Word through the Holy Spirit. And let then our faith be made manifest to the world by what this faith does: serving our neighbor — in church, in the family, and society — with the works of faith in time, talents, and treasures.

Hosanna Lutheran Church Council Meeting December 10, 2018

Attendance: Alex, Brad, Ron, Ryan, Jay, Tara, Stephen, Carlos, Ginny Absent: Julie

Tara called meeting to order at 7:00 pm and announced a quorum is established Approval of Previous Meetings Minutes & Reports

Previous minutes were approved via email as there was no November Council Meeting. 7 approved; 2 abstained.

Acceptance of Treasurer, Pastor, and Purpose Area Reports

Treasure report was not prepared in time for HLC Council approval. Pastor, Ministry, Discipleship, and Evangelism, Nominating reports were all accepted unanimously by Council New Business

Carlos motioned that the HLC Council approve the Executive Council, acting as the Investment Committee until their establishment, to execute the transfer of $100,000 of the current funds designated as part of the Restricted Building Fund account to the newly established brokerage account at Gulf Coast Bank. This brokerage account was established as a managed brokerage fund using a 50%/50% equity / fixed asset investment portfolio. All interest and dividends from this brokerage account are to be directed back into the same account to become additional funds directed solely for use under the Restricted Building Fund. Ginny second the motion, discussion centered on flexibility and that council resolutions and Secretary Signature are required to make any changes to the plan, all were in favor.

Carlos motion that the HLC Council approves the appointment of the following congregational members to the Financial Audit Team: Steve Burbrink, Lead; Brian Burbrink; and Jim Murphy. These members will complete the two-year term that started in January 2018 and will continue until January 2020. This team will be responsible for the review of the 2017 and 2018 financial records. Ginny seconded; Discussion of Scope of Work and Credentials were presented, all were in favor.
