July 2020

Grace to you and peace,

These days there is a lot of talk about heroes. I see signs in my neighborhood lifting up the work of teaching heroes, medical heroes, essential worker heroes. Heroes are on the front lines, fighting the battle. Heroes are home, taking care of the family. Heroes are analyzing the data. Heroes are making a stand. I appreciate all the heroes around us and I love that we are bringing awareness to the everyday heroes in our lives.

Heroes are all over the TV, too. I keep watching Black Panther and Ironman, some little ones were telling me they were watching the original Batman. Maybe you are watching Wonder Woman or Captain Marvel. It has been said that after times of tragedy, like 9/11, sale of hero Halloween costumes went way up. It seems like we are looking for an example of a hero in tough times.

One of the heroes in my neighborhood works in the medical field. She has continued to work and care for her family life. She made the difficult choice to sleep in a RV, in her driveway. She is not in regular contact with her kids, they aren't hugging, they are keeping a distance. A friend of mine, who is in the National Guard, has been sent to help in Minneapolis. He made the decision based on his commitments, to leave his family at home so he could assist others in need. One pastor hero is leading a fruitful but very difficult discussion of race-relations and history in her hometown. Other heroes are making home-study videos for the preschool class she serves. Other heroes are making or delivering food, and so much more. Friends, we are surrounded by such heroes. In fact, there is a good chance you are one of these everyday heroes making the difficult choice to serve in your neighborhood.

In the month of July, we will be thinking about Biblical heroes at Hosanna. Men and women who answered God's call to service even when it meant making really difficult choices. A queen, an apostle and a couple of prophets will encourage us in our own discipleship as we strive to follow Jesus in our real world.

As we celebrate these Biblical heroes, we will also celebrate the heroes in our community. We will celebrate our independence as a nation and those who serve, we will celebrate our quilters and their ministry to our nearby neighbors and to the world. We will celebrate a dozen members of our church who are finishing a pilot discipleship program. This month our council will meet in a planning retreat and hone some new skills and celebrate over a shared meal.

Living like heroes, making tough choices for the good of our neighbors and friends, we pray for God's leadership in our hearts and minds.

See you soon!

Pastor Jay

Notes and News:

We have opened our church doors

We will, also, continue to stream our worship service on our Facebook page and YouTube channel for those of our members that don't feel comfortable coming back to the church building at this time. While we will start offering one church service on Sundays, at 10:30 am, the service will look a little different:

- We are asking that everyone please wear a mask.
- We will have greeters at the door that will take your temperature and give you hand sanitizer.
- We won't have coffee or the tables in the Narthex.
- Members will immediately go to the sanctuary and find a place to sit in the chairs that will be spaced throughout the sanctuary. We will be able to have 140 people in the sanctuary for the service. If we have more than this number, then we will have to utilize the Narthex for worship space as well.
- The Nursery will not be open, and we will not have the kids' bags available yet.
- Offering plates will be kept at the back of the Sanctuary rather than passed down each row.
- We will have music, but we will ask that the congregation not sing at this time.
- Communion will be held at the end of the service. There will be little disposable cups of juice and wafers available for you to pick up as you leave the Sanctuary.

With these changes, we are trying to offer a service in the cleanest, safest environment for everyone. We can't wait to see you! For those members that would still like to continue to worship from home, please follow our service online.

Big Idea: Prayerfully Consider the Directions Hosanna Is Moving/Heading to Fulfill Our Mission

Strengths: Flexible leadership of staff (office, youth, worship and small group), many members still involved , vision for the future to continue our mission (relating to Hosanna's past and outreach), and Hosanna Hot Meals and God's Unchanging Hands ministries.

Concerns: Financial giving, budget revamp, Phase 1 opening and beyond, preschool summer camps and expansion, and Cares Act PPP money of $82,900 with changing guidelines

OLD BUSINESS

COVID-19: reviewed Bishop's message re: worship

Fundraising committee : GoFundMe for fellowship hall finishing touches, Grace and Janice)

Fellowship Hall has been painted and new flooring will be installed in next week.

NEW BUSINESS

Our insurance policy should cover Hosanna for any Covid-19 lawsuits if someone gets the virus from being at church as long as we follow all government guidelines for safety.

Reopening: June 7th after Phase 2 begins. Our occupancy for sanctuary is 273, so 50% would be approx. 140. Fellowship hall can be used for overflow if entered through different door. Chair groups will be set 6 ft apart, and will be decontaminated between services. The Peace (and possibly communion and singing) will be omitted. Everyone attending will be expected to wear a mask, use hand sanitizer and have their temperature taken prior to entering building. Folks over 65 or with high risk conditions are advised to stay home and watch Facebook live or YouTube Live. Committee to manage thermometers, hand sanitizer and masks formed and includes George Michell, Steve Beene , Ashley and Sandy. Steve will order items needed, including spare masks if someone comes without a mask.

Outside groups that use our facility will need to meet on Mondays and Thursdays so that our cleaning company which cleans Monday /Thursday nights can clean after them. We will wait until after our first church service in the building occurs which is expected June 7.

Meeting adjourned: Teresa motioned to adjourn, Sarah seconded and all were in favor. Meeting adjourned at 9:49 pm.

Next meeting will be Monday June 15, 2020.
