Pastor article

Written by Pastor Candy O'Meara

Hello Hosanna!

So, let me start with this: this is really my first Mardi Gras here in this area. While I'm from Louisiana, I'm from "the north". At the time of this writing it's already been a learning experience! I never knew "Lundi Gras" was a thing! I'm looking forward to getting to attend some parades and seeing what else goes on during this time.

What I do remember growing up in Louisiana is the tradition that at midnight on Mardi Gras, everything stops. Bars close, parades are over...that's it 'til next year!

This is also our (that is to say yours and mine) first Ash Wednesday (February 22) in Covington. Hosanna has a tradition of doing "Ashes to go" and we will continue that tradition here in Covington. Drive-thru ashes will be available 7am-9:30am and again 1pm-5:30pm 6pm. We will set up in the drive thru in front of the Fellowship Hall behind Aquistapace, If anyone would like to be a part of this tradition, we would love to have you here!

Ash Wednesday services will be at Noon and 6pm where we will have the imposition of ashes and celebrate Holy Communion. Please help get this word out for both the services and the "Ashes to go" times and location.

With the ashes, we are reminded that we are dust; that on our own we can accomplish nothing. But with the work of the Holy Spirit which breathes new life into our dust and brings to new life something beautiful and amazing and precious in God's sight.

Looking forward to seeing you this Lenten season. Until then, Happy Mardi Gras!

Pastor Candy
