

Hosanna Highlights

Pastor article

Written by Pastor Candy O'Meara

Hello Hosanna!

Happy Easter, happy spring!

In a short while we will be celebrating the resurrection of our Lord, Easter Day!

The good news is not that Jesus was dead and is now alive, but that each day we too are given our own "resurrection"! Every day God raises us to new life giving us a "do over." Each morning we start anew. God's mercies are new every morning!

When spring comes we see that same new life all around us: buds on the trees, greening grass, birds returning and days getting longer (even without daylight savings time). That which was dead is now alive.

I wonder, what signs do you observe that remind you that winter is over?

We at Hosanna are beginning to see signs of resurrection as well: new ideas and volunteers for community service and new energy for existing ministries

If you've been waiting for winter to be over now's the time. What new ideas and ministries interest you?

Join us for worship during Holy Week services on Maundy Thursday 6pm and Good Friday at 3pm. Then come back on Easter Morning at 9am. Bring a friend!

Blessings to you!
Pastor Candy

Chemo Care Bags

Thank you Hosanna Lutheran and Covington Presbyterian members for your generosity. We were able to deliver these 25 decorative bags filled with care items for chemotherapy patients to Mary Bird Perkins Cancer Center on March 7th. In April we will begin collecting items (journals, crossword puzzle books, unscented chapstick, unscented lotion, colorful headscarf's, knitted caps, warm socks, fleece blankets, and mint or lemon candies) for the May delivery. If you are able to help sew the bags please contact me for patterns and/or fabric.
