Pastor article

Written by Pastor Candy O'Meara

Mardi Gras season is in full swing, which means that Lent is not far behind! During this Lenten season, our theme will be "Wandering Heart: Figuring out faith with Peter."

Peter is a fisherman, a brother, a husband, a follower of Jesus, and as Jesus called him, "the rock on which I will build my church." He often speaks before he thinks, he gets it wrong, when his back is to the wall, he often chooses flight instead of fight. He's also capable of showing grace and mercy because he's been shown grace and mercy. He's flawed and he's faithful. He's human.

He is us...we are him...

You are invited to walk with Peter during this Lenten season as he learns what it means to call himself a disciple of Jesus and the "rock on which the church is built".

There are many ways in which to engage in this learning, all beginning with Ash Wednesday, which is on February 14.

Ash Wednesday, February 14

Drive thru imposition of ashes: 8:00am-4:00pm (Location: Fellowship Hall, E 20th Ave)
Worship services: 12:00 pm and 6:00 pm. (imposition of ashes & communion)

Worship & learning opportunities:

Every Sunday worship: 9:00am

February 18-March 17: Sunday evening dinner church worship: 6:00pm (Location: Fellowship Hall)

Mid-week Lunch & Learn: 12:00pm-1pm (Location: Fellowship Hall) (begins on February 21-March 20)

Come be a part of this important time of self-discovery, food, and fellowship! Leave knowing you are loved by God fully and unconditionally!
